CHURCH DISPUTE
TAKES NEW TURN

Independent Lutherans Receive an Ultimatum.

PARENT BODY SEEKS REUNION

Members of the congregation that seceded from Luther Place Memorial Church Given Opportunity to Return to Fold—Leaders of the New Body Remain Silent.

The receipt yesterday by members of the Independent Lutheran Church of an ultimatum from the council of Luther Place Memorial Church, laying down the terms under which the seceding members of the older church may return to the fold, has given a new turn to a controversy already bitterly waged both ways.

The letter is signed by W. J. Showalter, secretary of Luther Memorial church, and cites the members of the dissenting body to appear before the council of the parent church on or before the second Tuesday in September, to show cause why their names should not be stricken from the roll of membership. The letter sets forth that there are many in the new congregation who ought to return, and adds that all such will be welcomed back, provided they return in the right spirit.

Rights Are Violated.
The opening paragraph of the notice relates that as the members of the independent organization left the Memorial Church on February 1, 1909, at a time that have neither attended its services, contributed to its support, or acknowledged its discipline, but, on the contrary, have organized an independent congregation, they have thereby placed themselves outside of any rights or privileges of Luther Place Memorial Church, according to both civil and ecclesiastical law.

This notice is addressed to heads of families and, which copy is made to include the members of a family, their names being written in. The invitation to return is also made to include "others not here specified, but included in the resolution."

The notice concludes as follows: "You will kindly take notice of the above resolutions. The council will meet in the parlors of the Memorial Church on Tuesday of August and the first two Tuesdays of September, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening to hear any who shall desire to show cause why such action should not be taken. If there be those who desire to return to the Memorial Church, the council will be glad to take that matter up with them individually or in groups. Each person appearing before the council will be given a private hearing. There are those who ought to return to the church, and they will find a spirit of conciliation and understanding on the part of the council. The action of the council is intended to be harsh or unjust, but is made necessary in order that the rolls of the church shall disclose a true list of its present membership. If it be the desire of those who have withdrawn to build another church elsewhere in the city, the council and the congregation of the Memorial Church shall do nothing to hinder them; rather they would do what they can, in the furtherance of such an effort."

"And may God add his blessing."

Independents Maintain Silence.

The "independents" maintain silence as to what they intend to do. While some of the members, it is understood, desire to return to the older church, the leaders in the insurgent movement intend to stand their ground and increase their present membership rather than sanction any backward steps.

In the new constitution, which will come up for consideration at the first annual meeting of the "independents" in October, the body is styled the Independent Lutheran congregation, which was stated yesterday the members do not intend to ask admission into the Maryland synod of the Lutheran Church should the temporary organization be made permanent. Several synods, it is said, seek to have the new congregation affiliate with them. Some of these synods have no affiliation with the general synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

HELD FOR ROBBERIES.

Men Arrested in Baltimore May Be Brought Here.

George Miller, alias Snyder, and Frank Seymour, alias Smith, arrested in Baltimore on a charge of perpetrating several boarding-house robberies in that city, were yesterday identified by Detective Pratt, of Washington, as men who looted boarding-houses in this city about a week ago, obtaining property valued at nearly $400.

They are held in the Baltimore jail pending a hearing. When the Baltimore police conclude the prosecution of the cases against the men they will probably be brought to Washington to face charges of robberies committed here between August 9 and 12 last.

Among the persons who were robbed are William Healey, of 45 H street northwest; Mrs. Margaret McDaniels, W. H. McComas, and W. C. Woods, of 1101 H street northwest; J. E. Morrissey, of 133 E street northwest; and Cramer A. Burk, of 913 C street southeast.

Held For Shipmate's Death.

Acting Secretary Winthrop of the Navy Department has ordered the surrender of David Williams, a mess attendant on the battleship Vermont, to the civil authorities of Massachusetts for trial on the charge of causing the death of a shipmate in a boxing match, which occurred while the ship was in a Massachusetts port.

Military Honors for J. C. Loughran.

The funeral of John C. Loughran, the young soldier, who committed suicide Tuesday afternoon by inhaling gas, will be held this morning at 9 o'clock, followed by interment in Arlington Cemetery with military honors.

Totten Becomes Enthusiastic.

Touring Europe, George Oakley Totten, the architect, has become enthusiastic on the subjects of dirigibles. He has written to friends in the city, telling about a record-breaking flight of Count Zeppelin's balloon, which he witnessed, and met the count at a dinner given in his honor.

FIREMEN KEPT BUSY.

Chief Wagner Commends Department for Efficient Service.

Firemen were active yesterday in extinguishing blazes in different sections of the city, and they performed their duty so well they were complimented by Chief Wagner.

The first fire was discovered about 7 o'clock in the morning in the store of B. Gelsenberg, at 1301 C street northwest. The damage was about $100. About 7:30 o'clock an alarm was sent in for a blaze in a chimney on a house at 238 Georgia avenue northwest, occupied by John Meyers. There was no damage.

The third alarm was sounded at 7:50 o'clock for a fire in the house of Louis Cronice, at 5835 Georgia avenue northwest. A sofa caught fire from a match accidentally lighted. The blaze was extinguished with a loss of $5. An overheated stove in the house of Edward Reeves, at 251 Third street southwest, about noon caused a small fire, which was extinguished with slight damage. The blaze created excitement in the neighborhood.

An oil stove in a house at 250 Fifteenth street northwest, occupied by Mrs. Klien, exploded about 7:30 o'clock last night, causing a small fire. Alarm 84 was sounded, but the blaze was extinguished before the arrival of firemen. The damage was small.

DETECTIVES CAPTURE THIEF

Long Chase Ends in the Arrest of Elusive Lad.

"Eddie" White Is Charged with Stealing a Horse and Buggy, Besides a Bicycle.

"Eddie" White, nineteen years old, whose photograph and Bertillon measurements are said to be in the possession of the police, was captured yesterday by detectives in the rear yard of his home after a chase of nearly two weeks.

He is a prisoner at the Fourth precinct station awaiting arraignment in Police Court on charges of grand and petit larceny. White is accused of stealing a horse and buggy valued at $300 and a bicycle. He refuses to discuss the allegations, preferring to tell the story in his own way.

White has given the police several addresses as his home, but he is recorded on the police blotter as living at 480 K street southwest. Several weeks ago a horse was stolen in Seventh street southwest, the thief driving away in the buggy owned by J. T. D. Pyles, a grocer, residing at 1420 Seventh street northwest, who reported the theft to the police.

White was suspected and a warrant was issued for his arrest, but he eluded the detectives who were assigned to apprehend him. On Sunday night last a bicycle was stolen from Percy Brunger, a drug clerk, living at 913 Third street northwest. Brunger reported the theft to the authorities. It was later ascertained that White was riding a bicycle believed to have been stolen. The Washington police had no record of the case, and White was released. Instead of continuing to Baltimore he returned to his home, where it is thought he remained in hiding several days.

Detectives O'Brien and Springfield went to the house yesterday afternoon on pretense of renting a stable. White was there, and he was taken into custody. His aged mother, who had been talking with the supposed real estate agents, broke down and wept when the detectives disclosed their identity. "I have been suspecting something of this sort," she cried as the young man was led away.

White is unmarried, and says he is a machinist.

INSOLVENCY CHARGE DENIED.

District Realty Company Files Answer to Suit for Receiver.

Denying all the charges in the suit for a receiver and injunction brought in the District Supreme Court recently by Henry H. Giffry, as trustee for himself and former Senator William H. Clark, of Montana, against the District Realty Company, the defendant concern yesterday filed its answer.

The charge of insolvency is denied especially, as is the charge that the company owes $1,000 to Mr. Giffry. The defendant declares it has no knowledge of former Senator Clark's interest in the property involved, and states that it has no debts outside of those arising under an agreement of sale with Giffry in connection with lots in City View Heights. It claims assets by an interest of $50,000 in the lots under agreement, beside a vested interest, under its contract, in the unsold lots, worth $125,000. The company is represented by Attorneys R. B. Dickey and C. M. Fulton.

CARS MUST STOP.

Interstate Commerce Commission Allows Them to Run Past Streets.

The new regulation published by the Interstate Commerce Commission governing the stopping of street cars in the District to take on or let off passengers, provides that no motorman or conductor shall refuse to stop to take up a passenger at any street crossing unless all cars in the case are occupied.

The regulation also provides that motorman or conductors must notice whether particular streets have been skipped by a blockade, so that all cars will not run past the same crossing. Neither shall cars be run past passengers on account of being behind their schedule time, unless another car is following within two blocks.

LENDER IS ROBBED.

Negro Girl Charged with Robbing Woman Who Aided Her.

Laura Butler, negro, nineteen years old, who says she lives at 1307 Thirteenth street northwest, went to the house of Annie Fields at 311 Delaware avenue northeast several days ago, and applied for assistance. Laura said she needed ten cents, and asked the Fields woman to lend it to her.

"All right," said Annie, and invited Laura into the house. The visitor was given ten cents, and then she asked for a glass of water. When the hostess disappeared, Laura, it is alleged, took a savings bank containing $1 from a mantle, and hid it in her pocket.

After drinking the water, and thanking Annie Fields, Laura left. She was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective O'Dea and Evans on a charge of petit larceny.

FELL ASLEEP ON TRACKS.

One of Runaway Pair Seriously Injured by Engine.

Falling asleep on railroad tracks near Landover, Md., yesterday morning, William Provost, nineteen years old, and narrowly escaped death by being run over by a freight train. Smith was awakened in time to jump from the track. He aroused Provost, who jumped too late to escape being struck. The young man was knocked unconscious.

The train was stopped and the boys were removed to Washington on an engine. Provost was carried to Providence Hospital, where he is now recovering from the scalp and probably received internal injuries. It is thought he will recover.

FUNERAL RITES FOR VETERAN.

Potomac Post G. A. R. Will Bury Clinton Vermillion.

Funeral services for Clinton Vermillion were held yesterday afternoon at the residence of his son-in-law, F. Rogers, 225 Seventh street northeast, under the auspices of Potomac Post, Grand Army of the Republic.

Mrs. Vermillion was seventy-four years old, a lifelong resident of Washington, and a veteran of the civil war. He was the first boiler inspector of the District.

Vacation for Clerks Encouraged.

The following statement was issued yesterday by Commerce and Labor Department of Secretary and Labor: "There appears to be an impression that the granting of annual leave to clerks in this department has been discouraged. This is a mistake. In so far as the service admits it, the taking of the usual leave is encouraged, and the chiefs of bureaus are expected to adjust their work so as to allow annual leave wherever it can be done without detriment to the service."

Funeral for John S. Crocker.
